

The Daily Courant.

Thursday, April 24. 1718.

From the Amst. Gazette, dated April 29.

Petersburg, April 4.

SOME Letters from Moscow of the 28th past say they have Advice, that the Emperour of China has order'd all the Christians to depart immediately out of his Dominions, upon severe Penalties on those who should dare to disobey, which is attributed to the insupportable Ambition of the Jesuits, who seek rather to establish themselves upon the Ruin of the Mandarins, than to settle the Christian Religion upon solid Foundations. Wherefore those of that Order have been made the first Sacrifice to the Repentment of the Mandarins, who obtain'd of the Emperour to have them driven out with Ignominy, as Disturbers of the publick Peace.

Copenhagen, April 19. We hear by Letters from Norway, that the Swedes had made an Attack on some Posts on the Frontiers, but that they had been so well received, that they were obliged to retire with the Loss of 100 Cavaliers taken Prisoners. The same Letters add, that the Regiments of Swedish Foot lodg'd upon the Frontiers have suffer'd so much by Sickness, that near half of them are dead; so that it was necessary to relieve them. The King of Sweden in making an Exercise of Four Regiments of Horse, himself would charge at the Head of one Line, and young Count Steinbock led the other; in the Course of the Exercise the Combatants fell upon one another with so much Fury, that they came to Blows in earnest, and 300 of them were kill'd. 'Tis said even that Count Steinbock himself is mortally wounded. We have Advice, that as soon as the Swedish Flotilla is ready, they resolve, cost what it will, to invade this Kingdom; but our's will be ready before them, and we are preparing here the Dittmarsh, Gravestein, and Helpline new Prahm's, which will be in the Road to Morrow, and will be well furnish'd with large Cannon and three Mortars, to which will be added, another Ship that is fitting out in Form of a Prahm, and two Gallies. 'Tis believ'd so powerful a Reinforcement will make us Masters of the North Sea this Year. We hourly expect the Iceland Fleet, having heard that they have pass'd the Schaar. Our Squadron of Men of War is ready to sail, and they work incessantly in fitting out the Grand Fleet.

Hamburg, April 22. Letters from Berlin mention, that his Prussian Majesty would not meddle with the Affair of the Mecklenburg Nobility, nor agree to any of the Propositions which have been made to him by their Deputy, Colonel Riche, unless the said Nobility will come to an amicable Accommodation with their Sovereign. Whereupon the Deputy is return'd to Ratiburg to make a Report to his Principals.

The Ambassadors of Venice at Vienna, has received an Express from his Republick, with Advice, that the Senate is inform'd of an Alliance offensive and defensive, which is ready to be concluded between his Imperial Majesty and the Duke of Savoy; as also, that a Marriage between the Prince of Piemont and one of the Archduchesses, Daughter of the late Emperour Joseph, is in a manner agreed upon. 'Tis said that Prince Eugene has favour'd this Marriage, as tending to the Glory and Aggrandizing of the Imperial Family.

Copenhagen, April 23. We receiv'd Advice a few Days ago, that the Fleet from Norway was arriv'd in the Sound; and altho' a violent Storm surpris'd them not far from thence, they came safe into Port, and are this Day arriv'd in our Road, to the Number of 60 Merchant Ships, among which are reckon'd 11 return'd home from Iceland, one from the Indies, and two from France, richly laden; they were convoy'd by four Men of War.

The Court will depart from hence the 3d of next Month to go to Fredericksburg, to pass the Summer as usual. We talk more than ever of great Alterations at Court, which must now suddenly be known. They work Night and Day in equipping the Flotilla, which will be ready to sail by the End of next Week, to reinforce that we have in Norway, under the Convoy of three Men of War, commanded by Rear Admiral Byke, who, as 'tis said, will have the Command in the North Sea this Summer, it being strongly reported that M. Rosenpalm will return hither. We shall give the List of this Flotilla before it departs.

From the Amst. Courant, dated April 30.

Hildesheim, April 26. Baron Mardefeld, the Prussian Envoy at Petersburg, has, as we hear, written to his Court, that the Czar has sent an Express to his Plenipotentiaries at the Island of Aland, with Order to hasten the Conclusion of the Treaty of Peace with the King of Sweden, because his Czarish Majesty was apprehensive that a Peace will be made between Great Britain and Sweden sooner than he has hitherto expected.

Hamburg, April 26. We have Letters of fresh Date from Sweden, which mention that Couriers daily pass between Lund and Aland, and that they make no doubt of concluding Peace with the Czar. By other Hands we hear, that the Czar has ever since February had some Knowledge of a Negotiation for Peace between Great Britain and Sweden, that he has labour'd very much to penetrate into that Affair; and has even desir'd to know of the Swedes what there was in it, but without receiving the Satisfaction he wish'd for. The King of Sweden bends his chief Strength against Norway, and his Majesty makes great Preparations for a Siege. The Prince of Hesse Cassel will act in Wermerland, the King himself at Swinesund, and General Ahrenfeld on the side of Dahland.

From the Amst. Courant, dated April 30.
